ECONOMY THE WATCHWORD.

THE time is approaching when the county commissioners will fix the tax levy for the ensuing year, and it is pertinent to remind these gentlemen that they will receive the enthusiastic approval of every taxpayer in the county if they can see their way clear to a reduction of expense by retrenchment in every department. There is ample room for an era of economy and there is no reason why when Mrs. J. E. Hays, who has de-Nye county should not set an example to the other counties by paring down costs of administering public affairs without impairing efficiency.

Nye county is highly prosperous and every day adds to the values of property subject to taxes, and there is no reason why the commissioners should not exercise their right to fix a low levy and compel officials to stay within the bounds of the estimates. This can be Jone without parsimony or without impairing the service. Nye county, with a bonus of $50,000 derived from the increased valuation made by the Nevada tax commission, has divested itself of all floating indebtedness and is to the clear on matters financial,

No new demands on the county are apparent, and it behooves the commissioners to proceed with deliberation and judgment to the end that the enormous levy of Nye county should be reduced this year. Some talk of building a new county hospital, by adding to the shanties that do duty for a poorhouse and shelter for sick public charges, has been indulged in, but there is no necessity for this pretext, Miss Miriam Egan stepped extravagance, since the school trustees have offered the old high school building for less than it would cost to construct a new building of one-third the size. The county hospital is a blot on the landscape and too close to town to be deemed safe for the maintenance of a pesthouse for centagious diseases. Sanitary laws dictate the removal of the premises from the residence portion of camp, and there is no more suitable place than the old high school on the crest of the divide, which is admirably situated for the purpose of a testified to Mrs. Hays' eminent worth

By consummating this purchase the county would effect a double piled briefly, her evident pleasure economy. The money would go into the hands of the school trustees and help to keep down the school tax. The use of the funds would be merely a matter of bookkeeping, as it would transfer the price of the building and grounds from one account to another and the thanked the teachers most sincerely whole amount would be employed for public purposes. There is no after the exercises yesterday for the individual or contractor to derive any personal benefit from the telegram of condolence which was transfer and the county would be the gainer in every respect.

To greet a new hospital would call for the expenditure of more money than is recommended by the board of appraisers nominated tors and assigns. You are hereby by the district court and the school fund would be the loser, as it notified that the undersigned have will be necessary for the trustees to ask for a greater levy to keep expended during the years 1912 and pace with the rapidly increasing demands for accommodations. 1913 the annual amount of money, Taxpayers do not seem to be aware of the fact that the school in labor and improvements necessare population of Tonepali has increased 50 per cent in the course of to comply with the annual assessthe past year and that every square foot of floor space is taxed by dend No. 1, Dividend No. 2 and Divithe great influx of pupils. Said expendidaughters to the local schools instead of sending them to seminaries and preparatory schools in other states. This is flattering to the said mining claims under the proviconduct of the local schools and the county commissioners should not lose sight of the necessity for helping the trustees to adhere to Statutes of the United States. If the standards they have adopted.

Caminetti, the commissioner of immigration, is not like unto the and to the above-mentioned mining shrinking lily that despises publicity. Not satisfied with his last claims, your proportion being in the year scandal, involving his son, he wants to become interstate commerce commissioner. The ineffable gall of officeholders still holds good.
